PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS:

Winter ONLINE (January 1, 2018-April 30, 2018):

Note: B – Winter Term

GRADEDUC 9775B-650 Researching Change in Higher Education Organizations (Job Ref# 10932)

In this course, students will learn about research approaches in higher education. Students will learn how different research approaches relate to particular forms of knowledge and how these knowledges can inform an organizational improvement plan.

The calendar description of courses offered in our Graduate Education Programs is available at <http://www.edu.uwo.ca/graduate-education/index.html>.

For more information about our Faculty, please visit: <http://www.edu.uwo.ca>.

The successful candidate will be responsible for all activities associated with the successful delivery of the course, including but not limited to: developing, preparing, and delivering the course; setting and marking examinations, assessing the academic work of students, and reporting grades.

Candidates must be willing to undertake training as required by the Employer including, but not limited to, training in respect of health and safety, harassment and discrimination, and legislated service standards.

Candidates must have a PhD or EdD in Education(al) Administration and/or Leadership. Additional required qualifications include active engagement in higher education research and other demonstrable expertise in the course content concerned, leadership experience in post-secondary education (as relevant to the Higher Education cohort), and documented success teaching at the graduate (preferably doctoral) level. Knowledge of critical perspectives on educational leadership is required. A proven track record of excellence in innovative instruction for online adult learners is required (preferably in a cohort-based program). Experience in supervising applied education research and/or Organizational Improvement Plans, particularly at the doctoral level, is preferred. Successful instruction of this course in prior cohorts will be taken into consideration.

Candidates must apply using the Working at Western online application system available at <http://www.uwo.ca/hr/working/staff/index.html>. In submitting your application, candidates should attach a letter of application addressed to Dean Vicki Schwean specifying qualifications for the position and teaching interests, a curriculum vitae, and evidence of successful teaching, together with the names and contact information of qualified individuals who could be contacted about their teaching experience and ability.

In accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, consideration of applicants will include an assessment of previous performance, experience, and qualifications, including qualifications which go beyond the requirements for the position. Applicants should have fluent written and oral communication skills in English.

Please note offerings could be assigned to the workload of full-time faculty, to part-time faculty with seniority or preference rights in accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, or left unfilled based on operational/enrolment requirements. All positions are subject to budget approval.

For more information about this position, please contact Vangie Castillo at vangie.castillo@uwo.ca or (519) 661-2111 ext. 88653.

The closing date for applications is September 2, 2017.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Western University is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, members of racialized groups/visible minorities, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of any sexual orientation, and persons of any gender identity or gender expression.

Accommodations are available for applicants with disabilities throughout the recruitment process. If you require accommodations for interviews or other meetings, please contact Vangie Castillo at vangie.castillo@uwo.ca and/or 519-661-2111 extension 88653.
