

From Your

Education Students' Council

April 2019

To-Do List
→ Hundreds of hours of class time
→ 20K in tuition
→ Countless assignments & OWE posts
→ Four practica
→ Two Alternative Field Experiences
→ Make coffee
→ Apply to graduate
→ Graduate!

Congratulations!

What a feeling. Fellow Year 2 Teacher Candidates, we are so close to the end of our program. It's been an honour learning with all of you, and I'm happy to be able to call you all my colleagues.

Whether you already have a job lined up, are continuing with your education, or are still thinking about what comes next, I'd like to wish you luck, success, and happiness.

We're so close!

- ESCargot Editor Mark

Reminder

Apply to graduate before the April 30 deadline via the Student Centre website: student.uwo.ca

From Your

Education Students' Council

April 2019

What Comes Next?

We reached out to some graduating students and asked them “what’s next?”

Job Opportunities are posted at theteachercandidate.com postings are updated regularly, so check back often

The Teacher Education Office is currently accepting nominations for the Award for Excellence! Did you have a placement host that went above and beyond? That inspired you and their students? Celebrate them by nominating them for the Award for Excellence! Submit nominations to the Teacher Education Office before April 20, 2019 for consideration. More information at theteachercandidate.com

From everyone at your Education Students' Council, we wish you all the best as you go on to shape the minds of tomorrow.